

Fix Calls Incorrectly Labeled Spam

What to do

To address the challenge of spoofing and robocalls, some carriers are proactively blocking phone numbers or marking them as spam if determined by industry rules. Unfortunately, this practice can flag legitimate phone numbers.

We share your concerns about phone numbers that are improperly reported and is actively working with carriers to refine the methods used to identify these calls.

If you experience this issue, use the following websites to report your phone numbers as valid; We cannot submit these requests on your behalf.

T-Mobile / FirstOrion / PrivacyStar	https://callreporting.t-mobile.com/
Verizon	https://www.voicespamfeedback.com/vsf/
Verizon / Wireless / TNS	www.reportarobocall.com
AT&T	https://hiyahelp.zendesk.com/hc/en-us/requests/new?ticket_form_id=824667
Google Business	https://www.google.com/business/
Call Transparency	https://calltransparency.com/
Free Call Registry	https://freecallerregistry.com/fcr/

Revision #3

Created 2025-09-12 19:00:42 UTC by Mark Murawski

Updated 2025-09-12 19:01:40 UTC by Mark Murawski